

4.2 Te Tiriti o Waitangi / The Treaty of Waitangi

The Sustainability Policy will give effect to the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and kaitiakitaka by recognising that mana whenua have traditional and continuing cultural relationships with land, water and other aspects of our local environment

adopting a partnership approach with mana whenua and M ōri advisors in decision-making related to sustainability in consultation and collaboration with mana whenua and M ōri advisors, embed an understanding of M ōri environmental rights, m ōtauraka and values in education and research relating to sustainability at Lincoln University

4.3 Sustainability Plan

Lincoln University's Sustainability Plan will be the prime mechanism for delivering on our commitment to a sustainable future for people and planet.

The Sustainability Plan sets out the objectives of being sector leaders in education, research and demonstration of sustainability, and to become carbon neutral by 2030 and carbon zero by 2050.

These objectives will be represented through the following four themes:

1. Education. Lincoln University will add value to Aotearoa New Zealand through innovative sustainable teaching practices and content directed towards improving the sustainability of the land-based sector
2. Research. Lincoln University will show global leadership in distinctive and excellent research dedicated to improving the sustainability of the land-
